Dear Family Member:

We're reading a true story in class this week. Adelina's Whales is about whales that migrate to Baja, California, in Mexico. Adelina, a girl who lives there, waits for the whales' return every January. The story is a photo essay with many wonderful photos of Adelina, her town, and the whales. Their arrival signals the unfolding of other events. As I learn about the events, I'll think about the sequence in which they happen.

Queridos familiares:

Esta semana estamos leyendo en clase una historia verídica: Adelina's Whales, que trata de las ballenas que emigran a Baja California, en México. Adelina, una niña que vive allí, espera que las ballenas regresen cada enero. El relato es un ensayo fotográfico y hay fotos bellísimas de Adelina, su pueblo y las ballenas. La llegada de las ballenas marca el inicio de otros sucesos importantes. A medida que vaya leyendo sobre estos sucesos, iré pensando sobre el orden en el que suceden.
