Dear Family Member:

We're reading Because of Winn-Dixie, about a girl and her dog. In the library, the librarian mistakes the dog for a bear. The elderly woman begins to tell the girl about a time when a bear really did come into the library. What I just told you took up a lot of pages in the book. See how I could tell you about it in a short way? I told you the main points of the story and left out most of the details. When we finish reading Because of Winn-Dixie, I'll summarize the whole story for you.

Queridos familiares:

Esta semana estamos leyendo Because of Winn-Dixie, que trata de una niña y su perro. En la biblioteca, la bibliotecaria confunde al perro con un oso. La anciana mujer comienza a contarle a la niña sobre una vez en que un oso había entrado de veras en la biblioteca. Lo que acabo de contarles ocupa un montón de páginas del libro. ¿Vieron cómo lo conté en pocas palabras? Tuve en cuenta los puntos principales y no hablé de detalles. Cuando terminemos de leer les haré un resumen de todo el cuento.
