Dear Family Member:

We're reading a fascinating article titled "What's in Store for the Future?" It talks about things that have already happened. We went into space in rockets, and many people now use cellular phones. These are facts. But the article makes some predictions, also. Those are opinions. Perhaps all cars will be electric. Maybe we will grow all our own food in our own gardens. We can't prove those things, however. If they come true, we're in for a good time!

Queridos familiares:

Estamos leyendo un artículo fascinante titulado What's in Store for the Future? Habla acerca de cosas que ya han pasado. Ya hemos ido al espacio en naves espaciales y mucha gente ahora usa teléfonos celulares. Estos son hechos. Pero el artículo hace también algunas predicciones. Ésas son opiniones. Quizás todos los automóviles sean eléctricos. Posiblemente cultivemos nuestros propios alimentos en nuestras propias granjas. Sin embargo, no podemos comprobar esas cosas. Si se hacen realidad, ¡lo pasaremos muy bien!
