Dear Family Member:

In Seven Spools of Thread, a father who loves his seven sons is disappointed. The brothers argue all the time. When the father dies, they find out they will not inherit their father's money unless they turn seven spools of thread into gold. I can use two clues. The father loved them, and he wanted them to stop arguing. These clues help me draw a conclusion. The father's strange instruction will bring peace to his children.

Events

Who makes it happen?

What happens next?

Does someone make that happen?

Does the event before this one make it happen?

Conclusions

Queridos familiares:

En Seven Spools of Thread, un padre que ama a sus siete hijos se siente decepcionado. Los hermanos discuten todo el tiempo. Cuando el padre muere, ellos descubren que no iban a heredar el dinero de su padre a menos que conviertan siete carretes de hilo en oro. Puedo usar dos pistas. El padre amaba a sus hijos y quería que ellos dejaran de discutir. Estas pistas me ayudan a sacar una conclusión. El extraño pedido del padre va a traer paz a sus hijos.
