WORDS TO KNOW

blossomed	grumbled	lonesome
sidewalks	traders	wailed

The Old West Let's think about a place in the Old West that is just beginning to become a town. We can use the words above in telling a short story.

SPELLING WORDS

birdhouse	airplane	basketball	someone
sometime	newspaper	sidewalks	notebook
hairdo	birthday	barefoot	stagecoach
headlight	daylight	daytime

Double Trouble I'll give you half of a compound word. You can give me the other half and then spell the whole word. Do you want to turn the tables and give me half of each word?

Dear Family Member:

I'm reading the story Boom Town, which tells about a young girl and her family who moved west. Amanda is bored, and so she bakes a pie. After people begin buying her pies, Amanda starts a bakery. Things happen one after another. I keep track of the things that happen and the order, or sequence, in which they happen. When I finish reading, I'll know which events are really important. I guess they'll lead me to know how Boom Town came to be.

Sequence Scramble

Tallulah is having a busy day. Let's look at her list of things to do. Can we put them in the correct sequence?

- Piano lesson at 4:00.
- Drop off Rob's book after seeing Gina.
- Watch the TV movie with Sis tonight.
- Meet Gina for lunch.
- Help cook dinner.
- Remember to bring Rob's book with me this morning.

Plan Your Perfect Day

Think about what would happen if you could plan a perfect day. Tell what you would do, who you would see, and what you might eat. Put the events in order. What would happen first? next? last?

El viejo Oeste Pensemos acerca de un lugar en el viejo Oeste que está comenzando a convertirse en un pueblo. Podemos usar las palabras de arriba para narrar un relato corto.

PALABRAS DE ORTOGRAFÍA

birdhouse	airplane	basketball	someone
sometime	newspaper	sidewalks	notebook
hairdo	birthday	barefoot	stagecoach
headlight	daylight	daytime

Doble trabajo Te voy a dar la mitad de una palabra compuesta. Puedes decirme la otra mitad y luego deletrear la palabra completa. ¿Quieres invertir papeles y darme la mitad de cada palabra?

Queridos familiares:

Estoy leyendo el cuento Boom Town, sobre una niña y su familia que se mudaron al Oeste. Como Amanda está aburrida, entonces hornea un pastel. Después de personas empieza de comprar sus pasteles, Amanda abre una pastelería. Las cosas ocurren una después de otra. Sigo el orden de las cosas que ocurren y el orden, o secuencia, en que ocurren. Cuando termine de leer, sabré qué sucesos son realmente importantes. Supongo que los sucesos me dejarán saber cómo surgió Boom Town.

Secuencia desordenada

Tallulah tiene un día ocupado. Observemos su lista de cosas para hacer. ¿Podemos ordenar las cosas en el orden correcto?

- Piano lesson at 4:00.
- Drop off Rob's book after seeing Gina.
- Watch the TV movie with Sis tonight.
- Meet Gina for lunch.
- Help cook dinner.
- Remember to bring Rob's book with me this morning.

Planea tu día perfecto

Piensa acerca de lo que ocurriría si pudieras planear un día perfecto. Di lo que harías, a quién verías y qué comerías. Coloca los sucesos en orden. ¿Qué ocurriría primero? ¿Después? ¿Y por último?

Doub pwoblèm Mwen pral baw mwatye yon mo konpoze. Ou ka banmwèn lòt mwatye a epi eple tout mo a. Èske w vle ranvèse wòl yo epi banmwèn mwatye chak mo ?

Chè manm fanmi :

M ap li istwa Boom Town, ki pale konsènan yon jèn tifi ansanm ak fanmi l ki te demenaje nan zòn lwès la. Amanda vin anniyeak tèt li, kidonk li kuit yon tat. Aprè moun kòmanse achte tat li yo, Amanda mete sou pye yon boulanjri. Bagay yo rive youn aprè lòt. Mwen note bagay ki rive yo epi nan ki lòd, oswa sekans yo rive. Lè m fin li, mwen pral konnen ki evenman ki vrèman enpòtan. Mwen devine yo pral fè m konnen ki jan Boom Town te vin egziste.
