Dear Family Member:

We are learning more about fact and opinion as we read an article called "Beyond the Horizon." The article talks about what the world needs to do to keep our environment healthy. It gives facts about the environment that we can prove are true. It also includes opinions that we can't prove. That doesn't mean an opinion is a lie or untrue, though. An opinion is something that a person believes.

Queridos familiares:

Estamos aprendiendo un poco más sobre hechos y opiniones por medio de un artículo titulado Beyond the Horizon. El artículo dice lo que el mundo necesita hacer para cuidar el medio ambiente. Nos ofrece hechos del medio ambiente que podemos comprobar que son verdaderos. También incluye opiniones que no podemos verificar. Sin embargo, esto no significa que una opinión es una mentira o que no es verdadera. Una opinión es algo que cree una persona. Estoy leyendo con atención para separar hechos de opiniones.
