Dear Family Member:

In Sleds on Boston Common, we are reading a story that takes place on December 22, 1774, in Boston. A young boy named Henry wants to try out his new sled on the steep hill of Boston Common. But British soldiers have pitched their tents on the slope. Henry dares to speak to the general about his problem. The general listens to Henry. I'm able to draw a conclusion at this point. I think the general might be a good person.

Queridos familiares:

En Sled on Boston Common estamos leyendo un relato que ocurre el 22 de diciembre de 1774, en Boston. Un niño que se llama Henry quiere probar su nuevo trineo en las empinadas colinas del parque Boston Common. Los soldados británicos han armado sus tiendas de campaña en la colina. El general Gage era quien dirigía las tropas británicas. Henry se atreve a hablar con el general acerca de su problema. El general lo escucha. Yo puedo sacar una conclusión en este momento. Pienso que el general debe ser una buena persona.
